Dr. Rublee, assisted by Dr. Ed. Stone, performed a successful opera- tion upon Morillo Wood last Thurs- day, for the removal of a tumor, and the patient is doing finely.

W. E. Gilbert of Burlington was here over Sunday, on a visit to his mother, Mrs. D. A. Gilbert, who has been quite ill for several weeks, but is now reported to be much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bartlett of Plainfield were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bennett a day or two last week. They were here to attend the wedding of their son, Clinton Bartlett.

John H. Clark went to Hardwick, Monday evening to assist in the work of starting M. Rosenberg & Co.'s branch clothing store, which it is ex- pected to have in running order by Saturday.

The N. E. O. P. masquerade last Friday evening was a very pleasant affair. The costumes were fine as a whole, some being very elaborate, and what is better, everybody seemed to enjoy the occasion immensely.

The new incandescent dynamo has been ordered and the third wire from the power house to the village has been strung, so that in the course of a short time a marked improvement in the inside electric lights can be ex- pected.

While returning home Saturday evening, and having just passed over the Bridge street bridge, John Whit- ney's sleds collapsed and scattered a load of junk around quite promiscu- ously. The sleds are the only loss sustained.

The Woman's Christian Temper- ance Union will meet with Mrs. A. M. Burke, at her home on Park street, on Thursday afternoon, April 5, at three o'clock. A good program is being prepared. All interested in temperance are invited.

The Portland Street Whist Club holds its last session at N. E. O. P. hall Thursday evening, after which the members will proceed to The Randall and do ample justice to one of Landlord Randall's popular spreads, and then take a recess for a few months.

A part of the plans for the improve- ments to be made in the tannery have been received and indicate that quite a radical change is contemplated. It is not known now how soon these changes and repairs will be com- menced, as it largely depends upon the finishing of the work now under way.

Miss Ann Matthews, a native of Morrisville, died March 29, aged 74 years. The funeral was held Satur- day afternoon at the Universalist church, Rev. Dr. Booth officiating. Of the family of nine boys and one girl, P. A. Matthews of Port Covington, N. Y., and O. D. Matthews of this village are the only survivors.

Town Hall was well filled last Thursday evening to do honor to the Burlington High School Banjo and Mandolin Clubs entertainment. They had a fine program and it was well carried out in every particular. Al- though the troupe, if such a phrase can be properly applied to amateurs, and naturally of atemporary organiza- tion, there are many here who wish it to endure long enough to permit them to appear again before a Morrisville audience.

Mrs. John Foss is confined to the house with a sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Waterman are breaking up housekeeping and will make The Randall their home.

J. W. Law, of the Maplewood Sug- ar & Syrup Co. force, got a fall, in his work last week that laid him on the repair list for several days.

Geo. W. Clark is with us once again, having returned Saturday from quite an extended trip, which took him into the granite and Bay States.

E. S. Robinson went to Boston, Monday evening, called there by the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Dottie Joslyn. The remains are to be brought here for burial.

Thursday evening comes the regu- lar meeting of the Epworth League, followed by a business meeting. A social will be held April 13, further notice of which will appear next week.

Dr. Jas. W. Robbins started the work yesterday for a 10 x 13 foot addition to the office formerly occupied by the late Dr. Holbrook. The new part will be used as a consultation room.

The seats for the new school-house will be ordered in a few days by the School Directors. It is expected that when they come and are placed in position that some sort of dedicatory proceedings will be had.

The Woman's Club, on account of the lecture on Monday evening, ad- journed to meet again Monday evening, April 9. Election of officers is to be held and important matters are to be discussed. A full attend- ance is desired.

Town Clerk and Treasurer, A. A. Niles, moved the town records and his office belongings in the Centennial Block to the Burke Block last Satur- day and now has things arranged in very comfortable shape to transact public business.

At the Academy, Friday evening, the subject for discussion is Resolved, "That the fear of punishment has a greater influence on human conduct than hope of reward." The other features of the evening will be recita- tions, music, etc., all worth listen- ing to.

A dry wood famine is predicted here in Morrisville, and even already is said to exist. It really seems strange that in a country where material to make dry wood is so plentiful, there should be a lack of suitable wood to burn when hard coal fires begin to be a nuisance.

The Morrisville Bottling Works, over which S. B. Doty presides, has been entirely refitted with new ma- chinery and the institution will be better able than ever before to serve the public. From a small beginning "Sam" has worked up the ladder until his patrons cover quite a stretch of territory.

J. J. Morse, who recently purchased and moved into the Ira White house on Pleasant street, has got fairly set- tled and knows "where he is at." Mr. and Mrs. Morse will be kindly welcomed to Morrisville, having be- fore removal here, gained a large circle of friends, and the future can but largely add to the list.

Miss Blanche Foss, who has been attending a business college at Bridge- port, Conn., has graduated in the shorthand department and returned home. About twenty-six of her old schoolmates and friends gave her a surprise reception at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foss, last Friday evening, and a very pleasant re-union was had.

The Listers, J. H. Atchinson, Oscar Sherwin and Geo. H. Terrill, started out Monday to hunt up the personal property owners. Mr. Atchinson's bailiwick is the village, that of Mr. Sherwin the west part of the town, and that of Mr. Terrill Cady's Falls and the east part of the town. Be ready for them and it will expedite matters. They are sure to call on you.

That show window at H. J. Dai- nell's, the paintings and accessories of which represent the four seasons—spring, summer, autumn and win- ter—is the handiwork of D. A. San- ders and is called forth by the large cash prize offered by a prominent patent medicine firm for the best dis- play made. All citizens of Mor- risville hope the "Commodore" will rake in the ducaes.

E. N. Porter, a former resident, died of cancer of stomach, in Bur- lington Tuesday morning. The re- mains will be brought here Thursday morning and met at the train by members of Mt. Vernon Lodge of which he was a member, then taken to the Universalist church, where prayer will be offered, followed by Masonic services. The interment will be in the old village cemetery.

Lamoille Grange held a very inter- esting meeting Thursday, when the question, "How does hard wood ashes compare with others?" was vigorously discussed. A new feature was the Grange paper. The next meeting to be held Thursday, April 12, when the following question will be discussed:—"Are farmers justified in providing a house for hired help instead of board in the farmer's family?" The speak- ers are C. F. Smith, A. N. Terrill, A. N. Boynton, Mrs. Milo Small and Mrs. Levi Gile.

The minimum tax levy on dogs ex- pired Monday night, with an enroll- ment of 129. From now on until May the license rate is doubled.

New sugar will be served on snow, by the young people of the Congre- gational church to-night at 7 o'clock. Come and be sweetened. Admission 15 cents.

The death of Hon. Waldo Brigham leaves Gov. Hendee the only surviv- or of the original Board of Directors of the P. & O. railroad. The Gov- ernor has been a Director of the road continuously.

C. F. Smith says the wave of pros- perity among the farmers, owing to the high price of butter and other farm products, is very marked in his machinery trade this spring. During February and March he has received from the company $3600 worth of cream separators, a large share of which he has sold. In the last two weeks he sold nearly $200 worth of barrel churns. These, together with other dairy utensils, horse powers, etc., has made quite a trade. This week Mr. Smith is up in Eden with a two-horse sled load of separators.

The people of Morrisville have been given a fine opportunity to become acquainted with the Rev. R. Alonzo Scott of Tennessee, "ex-slave, evan- gelist, poet, musical composer and sweet singer," and his appearance here has created a favorable impres- sion. Sunday morning he occupied the M. E. pulpit and in the evening preached at the Cong'l. church, giv- ing discourses that were replete with thought and expression. Monday and Tuesday evenings he lectured in the M. E. church—"The Reign of Ter- ror in Darkest America," to good au- diences, charging a nominal price of admission, except for babies, upon which the tariff rate was $5 00.

HYDE PARK.

A. B. Noyes of St. Johnsbury is in town.

A. N. Camp, spent Sunday with his parents in Elmire.

Foss & Andrews have placed a very unique hat case in their store.

Miss Alice Eastman has returned from her New Hampshire visit.

Notice of the death of Hon. Waldo Brigham will be found on the 8th page.

Prof. Ingalls and wife spent Sat- urday at East Hardwick, with Rev. Mr. Marvin.

Harrison Grout is out again after a month's confinement to the house with grip.

Geo. Parker was in Burlington last week on matters pertaining to an in- crease in pension.

Mrs. L. M. Hill returned Monday from a visit of several weeks at her son James' at Morse's Line.

W. W. Holbrook has bought out J. P. Kelley's meat market, taking possession of same Tuesday.

Geo. Osgood has moved to the Bishop house at the corner of Church street and Electricity Avenue.

Emery Fisk and wife, who have been employed at the Phoenix for some time went to their home at Potsdam, N. Y., Saturday.

For the first taste of new sugar this season we are under obligations to E. E. Mann of Waterville, at least it came from his place, and was all right.

Remember the stereopticon enter- tainment at the old church to-night. Some pictures of local celebrities will be shown along with the regular ex- hibition.

Miss Alice Goddard, who has been confined to the house several weeks by illness, has so far recovered as to be able to resume her duties as clerk at the post-office.

H. L. Fairbanks is confined to the house by illness—sort of general de- bility. His many friends hope the advent of spring weather will restore him to good health.

Miss Pearl and Hazel Underwood gave a party last Thursday evening in honor of their cousin Miss Mary Nute of St. Johnsbury, which was greatly enjoyed by the little folks.

All members of the Hyde Park band are requested to meet at the Town Hall Saturday evening next, April 7, at 7:30 o'clock, bringing all instruments and music belonging to the band.

Rumor has it that June will see a wedding, or perhaps two or three of them, right here in our midst. We do not know how reliable this rumor is, but certainly indications point strongly that way.

Charlie Townsend, the traveling drug salesman, was the first man to stop with F. N. Keeler eight and a half years ago. He appeared Mon- day night and was Crane's first trans- ient at the Phoenix.

P. T. Denio and F. L. Lilley were up in Eden a part of last week look- ing after the construction of their summer house at "Windemere." It is already under way and will be completed by May 1.

V. L. Blodgett commenced work Monday as sawyer for W. D. Man- ning. "Vern" has lost all interest in agricultural matters and will devote his time, for the present at least, to the manufacture of lumber.

Dr. Melville and wife of Bakersfield, were recent guests at Dr. Genge's.

The vestry of the new church was occupied for the first time last Sun- day by a good sized congregation.

The services were as usual, the pastor thinking it best not to make any special reference to the new building until time of dedication.

Frederick Whitecomb, a resident of this town, has lived on the same farm in the Wiswell district fifty-two years. This is a record which we believe cannot be excelled hereabouts. Mr. Whitecomb is a worthy townsman and we hope he will round out many more years on the same place.

Sugaring at last here and sugar places will soon be in full blast. The season is quite late, and the wise ones, or at least those who think they know, predict a short season, while others take a sensible view and say, "we'll see." But very little syrup or sugar has been made as yet.

F. N. Keeler has vacated the Phoenix and the house is now under the management of C. H. Crane, who will get the same in running shape as fast as his furniture arrives, a part of which is now here. Meanwhile the traveling public are accommodated very nicely at Mr. Crane's house.

New sugar at 10 cents a plate, with doughnuts and pickles in abundance, will be served from 7 to 10 on Friday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. P. T. Denio; proceeds to go towards pews for the new church. Everybody invited. Come one and all, and enjoy a social evening and help in a good cause.

Melvin G. Morse, who located here some four months ago as an attor- ney, has decided the field was not sufficiently remunerative and so goes to Hardwick, where he will hang out a shingle. Mr. Morse is a good attor- ney and a man of exemplary habits and while we regret to have him leave we wish him success in his new location.

The condition of the roads are such that Geo. Eastman, night operator at the plant, finds it much better to go afoot than drive. George has been "on deck" for three years, losing in that time but three days and that caused by a funeral. He has not let the weather or condition of the roads deter him from turning on the lights and keeping them going through the night.

The Supreme Court has announced its decision in case of Hyde Park Lumber Co., vs E. D. Shephardson, appt. affirming judgment for plaintiff to recover $180 and costs. This is a case in which S. B. Waite is directly interested and he now suggests that all parties who bought butter tubs of James Brown & Son had better "step up to the captain's office" and pay up.

The ladies of the church are plan- ning to give an old-fashioned Colonial Tea at the new church vestry Wednesday evening next, April 11. Supper will be served from 6 until 8 o'clock after which there will be a program consisting of a Drama en- titled "Gen. Gage and the Boys of Bos- ton" given by the "Loyal Little Lads" of the village; Music consisting of solos, duets and quartet. Mrs. H. C. Fisk of Morrisville has kindly consented to sing a solo. The ladies are putting considerable work into this and no pains will be spared to make it a grand success. All are in- vited to appear in colonial costume. Everybody come and help make it a success. Supper will be 25 cents each.
